

TRADE MARK ATTORNEY

Cambridge, Oxford or remote

Stratagem IPM Ltd is a full-service, UK-based, out-sourced intellectual property law firm, with an enviable reputation throughout the life science and hi-tech communities for its strategic approach to attorney-led IP management. Our global reach, through our growing network of foreign legal contacts and clients, assists clients from start-ups through SME's to global corporations. Our recent success has created the need for more dedicated professionals to join our growing trade mark team.

Why join us?

You will be advising a varied stable of external clients, working closely with patent attorneys and our in-house solicitor, to offer expert opinion on the protection, management and exploitation of a client's Intellectual Property, including in particular registered and unregistered trade mark and design rights, as well as copyright . We work as a strategic part of the client's business to meet the commercial objectives needed from the Intellectual Property assets. You will be dealing with external clients from start-ups to multi-national corporations, as well as working with leading individuals in the field(s) of biotechnology, pharmaceutical, cleantech, nanotechnology, healthcare and security and defence, to name a few.

The Role includes:

- prosecution of trade marks globally, including oppositions, cancellation actions
- portfolio management and new filing advice
- contentious matters including sending letters before action
- regular phone and face to face contact with clients, giving presentations and writing articles for newsletters
- involvement in due diligence exercises for fundraising and M&A
- advising in relation to ancillary rights such as trade secrets, confidentiality, domain names, company name registrations

About you:

- The ideal applicant will have a good commercial interest in business as well as sound trade mark knowledge and experience.
- You will ideally be recently qualified or near qualification, although other experience levels will be considered if there is industry experience.
- Industry experience is highly desirable, but not a pre-requisite.

Competitive salary and benefits on offer, including free on-site parking, pension, life assurance, private health and discretionary bonus. Full or part-time considered, flexible working hours possible.
